Third Sunday in Ordinary Time—January 22, 2012

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel.
— Mark 1:15

They abandoned their nets and followed him.

A NEW DAY DAWNS

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing “by their actions” how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, “The world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live “as though” they aren’t doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn’t a new day dawn today for us as well?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Ordinary” is not always a desirable adjective. Who would not be insulted to receive a thank-you note for your “ordinary birthday gift,” or “the ordinary hospitality at the dinner party”? No restaurant advertises its “ordinariness,” no car dealer seats a customer at the steering wheel and whispers, “Look how ordinary it is!” Yet here we are in “Ordinary Time.” The word carries a different meaning here: it does not mean these days are dull, boring, pedestrian, uninteresting. It means “ordinal,” or “numbered” Sundays, a season of the year when we follow the story of Jesus’ life and ministry in an ordered way, with each Sunday assigned an ordinal number.

You can amaze your friends with this example of Catholic arithmetic: the “Ordinary Sundays” begin with the last Sunday of Christmas, the Baptism of the Lord, continue until the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, and resume after a cluster of feasts following Pentecost Sunday. The numbers are calculated by counting backwards from the Solemnity of Christ the King, the Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Now you know there is nothing “ordinary” about “Ordinary Time!”

Rummage Sale

Attention bargain seekers everywhere! On February 25 & 26, 2012, the Parish Hall will transform into a Treasure Hunter's Paradise during the Holy Angels Rummage Sale. This event is an opportunity for everyone to shop for incredible bargains. Be sure to drop by early for the best selections. Doors open Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and Sunday at 8:00 a.m. and will close at 6:00 p.m. on both days.

But of course, no Rummage Sale can be a success without items to sell so.....

We are asking you, our parishioners, to consider donating those "good as new" clean, useable and sellable items (i.e., household items, working appliances, clothing, books, etc.) that you no longer need and that someone else may find useful. All donations are tax deductible and receipts will be provided upon request. All proceeds raised for this event will go directly to the church.

Please bring your items to the Parish Hall on Thursday, February 23rd from 6:30 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. and Friday, February 24th, also from 6:30 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Members of the fundraising committee will be available to accept items for the Rummage Sale during these specified times.

The first collection amounted to $7,258.00 and the second collection for the Archbishop's amounted to $1,591.00. There is a certain urgency in today's gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples — Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follow Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats and father and fellow-workers. To what is Jesus calling me - at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Thank you to all who helped us meet our goal of $60,700.00 by making a pledge or giving money to the second collection.

Music and art and poetry attune the soul to God.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La cruda realidad de nuestro continente es que América es tierra de mártires. Esta semana recordamos el martirio del indígena quechua Segundo Francisco Guamán de Ecuador. Como la mayor parte de los indígenas americanos, los quechuas consideran la tierra como pertenencia de la comunidad humana. De ella come y vive todo ser viviente. Desde la llegada de los europeos la tierra americana ha sido explotada y con ella los indígenas también.

El siglo pasado unos campesinos ecuatorianos dirigidos por Segundo Francisco comenzaron a reunirse con el Ministerio de Agricultura y el Instituto Ecuatoriano de Reforma Agraria y Colonización. Que agencias civiles tomen interés por los derechos del indígena es siempre “buena nueva”. Lamentablemente lo que es “buena nueva” para la muchedumbre pobre es “mala noticia” para los poderosos. Uno de éstos decidió vengarse en contra de los campesinos. En su rabia, asesinó al joven Segundo Francisco de sólo 25 años de edad. Pero su muerte, como la de todo mártir, no fue en vano. Su sangre derramada sobre la madre tierra ha ido sembrando más movimientos por los derechos de los indígenas.
