Holy Angels School accepts children of all races, colors, and national or ethnic origins, providing they pass the entrance test and we have room for them.

THE HEART OF CONVERSION

Today's scriptures bring us to the heart of the meaning of the Christian journey of conversion. Saint Paul sums it up beautifully: "Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The Gospel passage, the parable of the prodigal son, shows us just what this new creation is like. It is all about reconciliation. Just as God removes the yoke of slavery from the shoulders of the Israelites—see today's first reading—so, too, does the father in the Gospel remove the yoke of guilt and shame from the shoulders of his wayward son. That son first needed to turn away from his sin and seek out and ask forgiveness of his father. That is precisely what we have been doing during this season of repentance. We can only begin to imagine the kind of reconciliation feast that awaits us when we are embraced by our forgiving God.

On Tuesday, March 2, 2010 our beloved sister, Chito Marilyn Perez was called home by God. Marilyn was active for many years in Holy Angels Church. She served as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Secretary of the Parish Council, Director of the RCIA Program, a teacher in the School of Religion, and she was a Past President of the Fil-Am and former President of the Legion of Mary at Holy Angels Parish. Marilyn also served as a Regional Officer for the Legion of Mary and was formally active in the Cursillo Movement.

Marilyn touched many people through her ministry and friendship as evidenced by the many tributes and phone calls to the parish.

Marilyn was a world class pastry chef who provided many delicious sweet treats for parish functions.

We will miss her greatly. Rest in Peace Marilyn and may Perpetual Light shine upon you.

Next Saturday, March 20th at the 4:30 pm Mass the first ten pews on Mary's side and on Joseph's side will be reserved for Holy Angels School of Religion First Communion. Thank you for your cooperation,

The Stewardship message in the parable of the prodigal son is that it is never too late to become a good steward. Blessed is the elder brother who had been a good steward all along, but blessed too, is the prodigal, who had to lose all he had in order to understand the value of what he had been given.

Who in your life has injured you, angered you, or hurt you? Don't wait for their change of heart. Change yours, and run out to meet them on the road of forgiveness.

AMAZING GRACE

After apartheid was abolished in South Africa, special hearings were held to allow victims a voice, and to establish justice and peace. One day, an elderly black woman and a white police officer faced each other across a courtroom. Officer van der Broek had been found guilty of the brutal slayings of her only son and husband. The judge asked the woman what should be done to the destroyer of her family. "First," said the woman, "I want to give my loved ones' remains decent burial. Second, I want Mr. van der Broek to become my son and spend a day with me twice a month, so that I can pour all the love I have left on him. Third," she said, "I want him to know that I forgive him because Jesus Christ died to forgive me." She embraced the policeman, who fainted, overwhelmed at her response. Then quietly everyone in the courtroom began to sing "Amazing Grace."

EL CORAZÓN DE LA CONVERSIÓN

Las lecturas bíblicas de hoy nos traen al corazón del significado del camino cristiano de la conversión. Pablo lo resume con gran hermosura: “El que vive en Cristo es una criatura nueva; para él todo lo viejo ha pasado” (2 Corintios 5:17). El pasaje del Evangelio, la parábola del hijo pródigo, nos muestra cómo es esta nueva creación. Se trata de “reconciliación”. Así como Dios quita el yugo de la esclavitud de las espaldas de los israelitas –vea la primera lectura de hoy– de igual manera el padre en el Evangelio quita el yugo de la culpa y la vergüenza de las espaldas de su hijo descarriado. Primero, aquel hijo debió volver la espalda a su pecado e ir en busca de su padre y pedirle perdón. Es precisamente lo que hemos estado haciendo durante este tiempo de arrepentimiento. Apenas podemos imaginar el tipo de fiesta de reconciliación que nos espera cuando somos abrazados por nuestro Dios de perdón.

SUBLIME GRACIA

Después de que la segregación racial fuera abolida en Sudáfrica, se concedieron audiencias especiales a las víctimas a fin de que éstas tuvieran voz y con el propósito, además, de establecer la justicia y la paz. Un día se encontraron una anciana negra y un policía blanco en lados opuestos de la misma sala de justicia. El agente de policía van der Broek había sido declarado culpable del asesinato brutal del único hijo y del esposo de esta mujer. El juez le preguntó a la mujer lo qué debía hacerse con el destructor de su familia. Ella dijo: “Primero quiero darles sepultura a mis seres queridos. Segundo, quiero tener como hijo al señor van der Broek y que se pase un par de días al mes conmigo para darle todo el amor que aún me queda. En tercer lugar deseo que él sepa que lo perdono porque Jesucristo murió para perdonarme a mí”. Fue y abrazó al policía, que se desmayó embargado al haber escuchado las palabras de la mujer. Fue entonces que todos en la sala de justicia comenzaron a entonar sosegadamente la canción “Sublime Gracia”.
