Second Sunday of Easter
(or Sunday of Divine Mercy)
April 23, 2017

“Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

— John 20:29b

A SEASON OF JOY

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42). This first line of today’s first reading sets the tone as this fifty-day celebration of Easter opens before us. Today we listen to the teachings of three apostles—Luke, Peter, and John—who remind us that even though we have not seen Christ, we nonetheless are filled with joy as we place our belief in his saving death and resurrection. Each week during the Easter season we will gather as a community of faith to find strength and support from our God and from one another. Each week we will gather to break bread and offer the great prayer of thanksgiving, actions that will manifest the very presence of the risen Christ in our midst. Let us be open to the wonders of this season of joy.

Why do Catholics believe in the “Real Presence”?

We believe that Jesus is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist because we have it on divine authority. Referring to the Eucharist, Jesus told his disciples, “whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life” (John 6:54). Jesus makes this promise to us every time we receive the Eucharist at Mass. When the priest, acting in the person of Christ, consecrates the bread and wine, Jesus becomes really and truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

There is nothing wrong with “pestering” God (Matthew 7:7), but think: if this was all we did with our loved ones, what quality of relationship would that be? Instead, God seeks a personal relationship with each of us—to converse with us heart-to-heart. Of course, tell him what’s on your heart, but don’t forget to listen to him, too. As St. James the Apostle and first bishop of Jerusalem said, “Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you” (James 4:8).

Holy Angels' Parish Fundraising Committee and the Latin Community invite you to celebrate Cinco de Mayo with a dinner dance on Saturday, May 6, 2017. Admission is $20.00 per person. Children under 12 enter free. Doors will open at 6:00 pm, dinner at 7:00 pm and dancing starts at 8:00 pm. Music provided by DJ Bobby. For more information and tickets, you are welcome to contact members of the Latin Community or the Parish office. All proceeds go to the support of our Parish.

Holy Angels Church will sponsor a “Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Colonial Mexico and Guadalajara” in Mexico from September 16 to 23, 2017 at $1,799.00 per person. It’s on a ‘first come first served basis’ as we need twenty five or more pilgrims to push through with this pilgrimage. If you or anyone you know is interested, please call our parish secretary. Fliers are now available in the parish office. Thank you.

Welcome in the Lord to Holy Angels Church

We extend our warm hands and hearts of welcome to you here whether you are a longtime parishioner or newly arrived in the parish. We thank God that you are with us. If you are not registered, please fill out the form below and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the Parish Office:

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
 Dear Sisters and Brothers, Easter blessings to you. This is a season full of hope, joy, love. We want to thank the staff at Duggan's Serra Mortuary under the leadership of Jeannette Luna and Teresa Proaño who adopted a family with many children for Easter. The baskets were beautiful and a surprise for the children. They came with a message of God's love and of hope even when times are tough. Holy Angels School's 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades have adopted another of our families and for the past three months have provided diapers, wipes, toddler formula, and PediaSure for the children. Easter baskets were added in April. These make a tight budget more manageable for a single mom and bring smiles to everyone's faces. It is good to do God's work. Thanks be to God!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The origins of the custom of burning a lamp before the tabernacle are in Jewish worship, where a lamp called ner tamid or "eternal flame" burns before the ark in every synagogue. The ark contains the sacred scrolls of the Torah. The flame represents the menorah in the Temple, and therefore is never extinguished. In fact, the word "tabernacle" itself is derived from Hebrew, as taber is the Hebrew word for "tent," and harkens back to the forty years of wandering in the desert. The pilgrim people were sustained in hope by an awareness that God was not only in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, but had quite literally "pitched his tent with them" in the shelter for the Ark of the Covenant. Some artisans have used this theme of "ark" or "tent" to design a tabernacle for the Blessed Sacrament.

In Christian practice, Anglicans and Catholics use a sanctuary lamp to point toward the presence of the reserved sacrament, and Lutherans use it as a sign of God's presence in the house of worship, but not necessarily as a clue that the Eucharist is reserved. Why, even in an age of electric light, is the sanctuary lamp an oil light or candle? Perhaps not only to point to Christ, the light of the world, but also to point to sacrifice. For the light to exist, there must be sacrifice. The oil or wax is transformed into light, just as those who pray here, or who will receive viaticum from here, are called to transformation in Christ.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 20 de abril de 1906 los ojos de una imagen de la Dolorosa comenzaron a parpadear durante un lapso de 15 minutos en el colegio jesuita San Gabriel, en Quito, Ecuador. En 1995 en Cochabamba, Bolivia, donde una imagen del Divino rostro lagrimó sangre y después, una imagen de la Inmaculada hizo lo mismo. En el transcurso del siglo veinte, muchísimas imágenes de Cristo, María e incluso, el Espíritu Santo, lloraron lágrimas de agua, sangre u óleo, emitieron aroma de rosa o mostraron alguna manifestación paranormal.

La ciencia logró explicar algunos de estos fenómenos, pero en muchos casos no fue posible. Normalmente, la jerarquía eclesiástica prefiere no hacer declaraciones oficiales al respecto, por lo menos, no antes de mucho escrutinio. El apóstol san Juan recomienda examinar cada espíritu (1 Juan 4:1-3) y esto es lo que la Iglesia hace con estas manifestaciones sobrenaturales. Con investigaciones científicas, sociales y espirituales se examinan cuidadosamente estas manifestaciones a fin de asegurar que provienen de Dios y no del diablo u otros orígenes. En fin, la mejor prueba de la veracidad de estos fenómenos es la conversión de los fieles.

SOCIEDAD DE SAN VICENTE DE PAUL

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, bendiciones de Pascua para ti. Se trata de una temporada llena de esperanza, alegría, amor. Queremos agradecer al personal a Duggan's Serra Mortuary bajo el liderazgo de Jeannette Luna y Teresa Proaño que adopta a una familia con muchos niños para la Pascua. Las cestas fueron hermosos y una sorpresa para los niños. Vinieron con un mensaje de amor y de esperanza, incluso cuando los tiempos son difíciles. Grados 5to, 6to, 7mo y 8vo de la escuela de Holy Angels han adoptado otra de nuestras familias y para los últimos tres meses han proporcionado pañales, toallitas, fórmula de niño y PediaSure para los niños. Canastas de Pascua fueron agregados en abril. Estos hacen un presupuesto ajustado más manejable para una madre soltera y traen sonrisas a las caras de todos. Es bueno hacer la obra de Dios. ¡Gracias a Dios!

El comité de Finanzas y la Comunidad Latina de Holy Angels los invita a celebrar Cinco de Mayo con una cena baile el sábado, 6 de mayo del 2017. Admisión es $20.00 por persona. Niños menor de 12 años entran gratis. Las puertas abren a las 6:00 pm, cena a las 7:00 pm y el baile inicia a las 8:00 pm. Musica amenizada por DJ Bobby. Para mas información y boletos, se pueden comunicar con miembros de la Comunidad Latina o la ofecina de la Parroquia. Los fondos son para el apoyo de nuestra Parroquia.
